ROBBERY WITH TRAINED PIGEONS. - A new species of robbery has of late been perpetrated in New York by a gang of young boys, aided by a pigeon. The modus operandi of the thieves was really very clever. They first threw their trained pigeon over the fence or wall into the rear yard of the house they proposed robbing, and then two of them went to the front basement door. They asked leave of the servant to catch their pigeon, which had flown into the rear yard of the house. The request, to all rearning intent a proper one, was invariably seeming intent, a proper one, was invariably granted, and one went into the yard. While he was endeavoring to catch the pigoon, and attracting the attention of all in the house to the rear yard, the other thief glided into the front basement with a bag, and scooped in all the silverware and valuable property he could lay hands on, and then promptly skedaddled. Sufficient time having elapsed, the trained pigeon was at once caught, and the second thief left. The silverware was then found to be stolen.— Quite a number of mansions in the Fifth avenue have this way been despoiled. Several boys, ranging from fourteen to twenty years of age, have been arrested for this ingenious and novel mode of criminal industry.

BRIEF BUT FERVENT.—A gay old widower of Indiana, who has passed his half century anniversary, went down to Indianapolis on Tuesday to pass a few days with a married friend. On the way from the depot he bemoaned his lonely existence, and confidentially informed his friend that he would marry again if he could find a lady of suitable years. Now, as it happened, the friend had a lady friend, a good looking widow, who, she thought, would please the widower. Accordingly, he invited her to dinner that same day. She came; the acquaintance seemed mutually agreeable; in a remarkably short time a charming intimacy was developed; on Thursday afternoon the couple went out riding together, and at 8 o'clock in the evening they were married.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

A TITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.—As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application, if any.

AT UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

The undersigned will receive and promptly attend to all claims of parties who deem themselves entitled to compensation under the above act of Congress.
